RAIL EXECUTIVES OUTLINE PROGRAM FOR BETTERMENT

Expect Greatest Traf- fic Year in History of Railroad

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, April 4.—The executive committee of the association of Railway Executives today approved a program outlined yesterday by the board of directors of the American Railway association for meeting in 1923 what is expected to be the greatest traffic year in American railroad history.

In approving the program which will be submitted tomorrow to a meeting of representatives of member roads the executive committee endorsed plans calling for "the largest budget of new facilities, power and equipment for many years if not in the history of the road."

"The committee was unanimous in the opinion that the operating program proposed by the directors of the American Railway association supplemented by the large increase in facilities which the roads had reported to this committee promised transportation results for the year," read the report of the executive body of which Hale Holden, president of the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy is chairman.

It pointed out that the four day session of officials of the railroads, including all classes and subsidiary terminal and transfer systems, was called, "take account early of the prospects for the heaviest traffic to be moved over the railroads of the country in their history and to anticipate all possible measures available to handle this traffic to the satisfaction of the public."

Despite the shippers' strike of last fall and the unusual severity of the winter, there now are more locomotives in good repair and a smaller percentage in bad order than ever has been reported by all roads at any period. The car situation is correspondingly good it was reported, with more available for traffic and more new ones on order than there have been in the spring for two years. As evidence of the excellence of the labor situation, it was pointed out that whereas the winter season usually makes huge inroads on the supply of shippers to keep up repairs, the supply this past winter has been increased.

EXECUTION APPEARS TO BE CLOSED INCIDENT

(By The Associated Press)
MOSCOW, April 4.—The execution of Vice-General Butchkevich appears to be a closed incident so far as the Russian government is concerned. From Catholic sources it is learned that no reply has been made by the government to the request of the Roman Catholics of Moscow for permission to bury the Vice-General in accordance with the rites of the church.

Beyond a resolution adopted by the Kharkov Polish workmen approving the execution no mention of the affair is made by the Moscow press.

TORRENTIAL RAINS DISRUPT RAILROAD TRAFFIC IN SOUTH

Hail Storm Does Great Damage at Hatties- burg, Miss.

(By The Associated Press)
NEW ORLEANS, La., April 4.—Torrential rains last night and early today in parts of Mississippi and Louisiana disrupted railroad traffic, caused small streams to go out of their banks and flooded highways and lowlands. The weather bureau here reported the precipitation during the twenty-four hours ending this morning to have been six inches at Natchez and more than seven inches at Brookhaven, Miss.

The downpour at Hattiesburg, Miss., resolved itself into a terrific hail storm at midnight which caused $50,000 damage to insured and an equal amount of damage to uninsured property, breaking windows, damaging roofs and stripping vegetation of its foliage.

The railroads were the heaviest sufferers. The double track main line of the Illinois Central was severed in two places near Brookhaven, Miss., where culverts were swept away by overflow of water from the Logue Chitto river.

To Build Modern Bungalow and Lay Out Golf Course

(By The Associated Press)
MOUNT GILEAD, Ohio, April 4.—President Harding today purchased a farm in the township of North Bloomfield township, Morrow county—where as a barefooted boy he spent his childhood days.

The deal was consummated thru French Crow, postmaster at Marion, Ohio, a lifelong friend of the president who acted as his personal agent. The deed was delivered to Mr. Crow by Harry Erickson, who has owned the farm for a number of years.

Plans now under consideration it is understood call for a complete re-arrangement of the premises including a modern bungalow and golf course. Friends close to President Harding stated he contemplates spending much of his time after retirement from the white house on the "old farm," in writing and "getting back to nature."

ARMY BALLOON FALLS IN LAKE MICHIGAN

(By The Associated Press)
WAUKEGAN, Ill., April 4.—The runaway government balloon which broke away from government officers at Plano, Ill., yesterday was found in Lake Michigan about 30 miles southeast of here today by Captain William Smith, a fisherman. The gas bag, however, broke loose from the basket while the fishing party was attempting to tow the balloon to shore so that the basket and the sand bag ballast was all that was brought ashore.

When sighted the balloon was flying low, the basket dragging in the water. Captain Smith hooked on the day trying to tow it to shore. When about six miles off shore the gas bag broke loose and floated away. The balloon which had started on a trial trip from Belleville, Ill., in charge of Major R. B. Lincoln and Major J. D. Reardon, broke away when the officers brought it to earth at Plano to make repairs.

Caps bearing the initials of the officers were found in the balloon.

(By The Associated Press)
NEW YORK, April 4.—The total number of church members in the United States during 1922 was 44,663,684, a gain of 948,347, according to the annual church census compiled for the Christian Herald by Dr. H. X. Carroll. The increase is 64,949 less than the gain reported in 1921. The Protestant Evangelical group of churches, which represent approximately 60 per cent of the total numerical strength had a total of 27,256,001 communicants, an increase of $28,600 while the total for the Roman Catholic church was 15,478,099, representing the 85 per cent of the Catholic population and a gain of 8,016. The Catholic Orthodox group, aggregating 625,944 communicants, gained 32,500.

A revision in one of the larger eastern centers and restricted immigration are given as reasons for the smaller gain than that usually recorded by the Roman Catholic church.

The Baptist church, the largest denominational group in the Protestant classification, having fourteen bodies with a total membership of 8,303,824, tops the list, gaining 305,597. The Methodist group of fifteen bodies, total membership 8,270,704, is second, gaining 269,198; the eighteen Lutheran organizations total membership 2,443,016, is third, gaining 58,839 and the Presbyterian group of nine totaling 2,401,267 fourth gaining 53,122.

The Methodist Episcopal church is the largest single Protestant denomination with 7,485,016 members, followed by the national Baptist convention (colored) with 3,426,596 and the Southern Baptist convention with 3,339,118.

WOMAN TALKS CONTINUOUSLY

(By The Associated Press)
COLUMBUS, O., April 4.—Talking continuously since last Thursday, according to attending physicians, Mrs. William Montgomery, of Logan, Ohio, was today admitted to a Columbus Sanitarium where her case will be diagnosed by specialists tomorrow.

For some ten days prior to March 24, Mrs. Montgomery had short spells of talking. After that date they became longer until the conversation became incessant. At the local sanitarium it was said she has a "high fever" and is "restless."

Opiates have no effect on her, physicians said. Prior to the talking spells Mrs. Montgomery had a severe case of influenza and Logan doctors said they believed it had attacked her brain causing the malady. Logan doctors state that the patient "would cure and pray and at times become very violent."

Carnarvon Victim Of Ancient Curse?

(By The Associated Press)
CAIRO, April 5.—The Earl of Carnarvon died peacefully at 2 o'clock this (Thursday) morning. He was conscious almost to the end. His death was due to blood poisoning thru the bite of an insect with the later development of pneumonia.

The death of the Earl of Carnarvon comes soon after the culmination of the exploit that brought him chiefly into public notice—the discovery of the rich tomb of the Pharaoh Tutankhamun in the Valley of the Kings in Egypt by the archaeological expedition which he headed.

While the press of the world was still devoting no small amount of its space to the notable contributions to the world's art and history which Lord Carnarvon and his fellow explorers had uncovered came the news that he had been suddenly stricken down and was lying seriously ill in a Cairo from the bite of an insect.

By the public at large the misfortune which the earl had met was regarded as a lamentable incident of what happens in a tropical climate such as that of Egypt. But to the credulous students of Egyptian mysticism the news did not come as a surprise.

Even before Lord Carnarvon was stricken with blood poisoning announced as due to an insect bite there had been talk of the curses laid by the ancient Egyptians with mystic incantations on any who dared disturb the sleep of a Pharaoh.

After he was stricken, the old legends said, believed that the old Egyptian curse had fallen on the Englishman.

There were some who even questioned whether it was an insect that had dealt him the poisonous stroke. It was suggested that he might have touched some

WARNS AGAINST SPONSORING OF LABOR ISSUE

(By The Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, April 4.—A warning to the Republican party against any sponsoring by it in the next campaign of anti-organized labor issues, was issued today by Samuel Gompers, president of the American Federation of Labor. Mr. Gompers, just recovered from severe illness said he wanted to make the union position clear in views of reports published recently that President Harding while in Florida had been advised by certain friends to endorse "open shop" policies in seeking re-election in 1924.

"Let the issue come if it is to come," Mr. Gompers declared. "American labor will meet it on any field, political or otherwise. It is only natural that the bankers, big business men and railroad executives who were responsible for the strikes of the working people last summer should advance these suggestions or proposals."

"Yet the injection of this issue which cannot be touched by legislation seems to indicate that some one wants an assumption of power outside and above the law—something that bears comparison to the Fascist movement in Italy. I wonder who they will choose to be the Mussolini of American reaction."

"I am sure the liberty loving American people are not willing to bend the knee to any such group. Organized labor will live after this group has gone by the boards and been forgotten."

Lord Carnarvon was first reported ill on March 19. His wife travelled by airplane from London to his bedside in Cairo, but was brought down in Paris by a sudden illness that seized her in mid-air. She finished the trip by boat and rail, arriving to find her husband somewhat better. He was unable to fight off the poison, however, and soon suffered a relapse. This was followed by pneumonia.

The fifth Earl of Carnarvon, was born June 26, 1860, and succeeded his father to the earldom in 1899. His mother was a descendant of the famous Lord Chesterfield, author, statesman, and a man of fashion.

Lord Carnarvon was reported to have spent more than $100,000 maintaining the expedition which finally uncovered the Pharaoh's tomb last December, after seven years of fruitless excavation.

MORE TESTIMONY FOR DEFENDANTS IN HERRIN TRIAL

Twenty Five Give Complete
Alibis for Three Men

(By The Associated Press)
MARION, Ill., April 4.—A total of 25 witnesses, the greatest number heard on any day since the beginning of the second Herrin riots trial, testified to complete alibis today for three of the six defendants. Evidence designed to prove an alibi for a fourth defendant, Oscar Howard was completed yesterday.

The witnesses today traced the movements of Otis Clark, one of the alleged leaders of the mob and Bert Grace who was accused of having been present with a gun at the time six prisoners were shot at a cemetery outside of Herrin and Philip Fontanetta identified by a state's witness as having shot one of the wounded men.

Nine witnesses including his mother testified that at the time of the killings Fontanetta, the youngest of the defendants, was playing cards in the yard of a house across the street from his home in Marion, about twelve miles from the scene of the tragedy.

Six witnesses, including A. L. Bradley, a Marion constable declared positively that Grace was in the public square at Marion while the slayings were taking place and traced his movements from the time he left his home shortly after six o'clock until 9:30 o'clock that morning.

Seven witnesses testified they had heard Clark plead that the lives of the prisoners taken from the mine of the Southern Illinois Coal company be spared and that he was more than a mile away when C. K. McDowell, superintendent of the mine was slain.

In addition, the defense put three witnesses on the stand to impeach the testimony of William Goodman and George Nelson, two farmers who had testified against Clark.

Fred Martin, a farmer and Louis Harkins, a miner testified that Goodman told them that he had passed the crowd and the prisoners while riding on a suburban car but could not recognize anyone.

Mayor William Hale Thompson, it is understood, has been desirous of rounding out eight years in the office by remaining until April 26, but the mayor-elect is reported to have decided to go into office as soon as he is qualified. It is expected that the Democratic city treasurer elected with the Democratic mayor, as well as twenty aldermen will assume office at the same time.

as fear! It is even more ingenious than hatred, especially when its concern is with the preservation of money.—Bayle St. John.
A woman instructor in car driving in one of the big cities advises her pupils "to have confidence in themselves." The instructor suggested that phrase as basic in car control. That is just as applicable to other activities in life. A certain amount of self-confidence is very essential for growth and advancement. The difficulty is to draw just the proper line between self-confidence and over-confidence.

One of the great troubles of the much discussed coal business is the fact that the operators are compelled to make their profits during a little more than half the year. During that half the cost of the whole year must be added to the consumer's price, for there are heavy expenses that go on even when mining properties are not in operation.

Judge Dever, the newly elected mayor of Chicago, faces a huge task and if he accomplishes even half of the things that are expected of him in the solution of the traffic problem and in the physical development of the great city he would make a wonderful record indeed.
Chicago papers yesterday after summing up the improvement and reform program that has been outlined for the new administration, said that Judge Dever is expected to accomplish this big forward program without any increase in general taxes. Some task.

The indications are that before the season is very far advanced that the labor shortage in Illinois will be acute. Heavy building operations are under way in the larger cities and other things taken in connection with public improvement work have created an activity that is almost certain to mean a shortage later on. One of the great troubles with business is the excess of certain years and the inevitable period of quiet that comes afterward. If somebody could just find out the method to equalize these things, the periods of high prosperity could be adjusted.

Those who consider that the railroads have real troubles notwithstanding the present activity of business point to the fact that in the latest year for which records are obtainable that the total of new mileage was 475. When this figure is compared to the average of 1,714 in new construction maintained in the pre-war period, it is easy to understand that railroads are not expanding in a way to keep pace with the increase in traffic which comes along naturally with the increase in population.

That was an unusual meeting down at the city hall the other night, when heads of departments and employees met for a conference with the city council. Such a gathering could not help but bring to pass a better understanding between the employers, who represent the public, and the employees who are serving the public.

CENTENARY MEN PLAN SPECIAL RELIGIOUS WORK
The Men's class of Centenary Sunday school has engaged in a piece of work that is somewhat unusual for a Bible class. Under direction of the officers of the class organization, they have organized a visiting campaign for the purpose of recruiting attendance at the church services and sessions of the Sunday school. The plan is to go into every home represented in the membership and constituency of the church, read the Bible, offer prayer and invite the members of the family, and especially the men, to church and Sunday school. The men who do this will go in teams of two.

This kind of work is usually left for the pastor to do, but ministers believe laymen can do it much more effectively because they are not thought of as professional workers. The canvass is to be made Sunday afternoon, April 8, and reports from the teams will be given at the evening service. C. W. Boston is president and C. S. Smith teacher of the class.

AN OLD NEWSPAPER
A reader of The Journal in looking over some old documents recently found a copy of the Springfield State Register, dated June 29, 1862. At that time the Register was a four page publication printed in very small type. The proprietor was Charles H. Laupher. In the advertisements and news columns appear the names of many persons prominent in the earlier life of Sangamon and Morgan counties.
An editorial headline typical of the discussion of the time is "State War Expenditures," and another discusses the "Illinois Central Road."
The greater part of the first and second pages is devoted to report of sessions of the Illinois state constitutional convention. About a half column is devoted to telegraphic news and not only in this but in other ways as well the publication is in marked contrast to the Register of today.
John King of Tallula was a local business caller Wednesday.
John McFadden of Arenzville was a recent visitor in the city.

I DON'T CARE
I am Italian. I like wine, and Mr. Venturo wants me to drink water. I won't do it. Just for the 1 and my 20 acres, full-bearing Muscata with a $2000 new bungalow, all furnished, auto, fine team, tools, etc., for $12,500, on easy terms. Sam Oliveras, shown in the picture, was arrested at Fresno, Calif., for violating the dry law. When freed, he inserted the advertisement above in the local papers—and acted accordingly. He's taking other Italians with him.

Many of the young people will take part in this beautiful production. The author is H. August Smith, of Boston University.
Next Sunday evening, following the film "Enoch Arden" Dr. Smith will preach upon "The Might of a Sacrificial Love." This film is artistic and the lesson that Tennyson sets forth in the poem is deeply touching.
The annual congregational supper and business meeting will be held Wednesday evening April 11th.
The pastor's Training Class is now meeting on Fridays at five o'clock and is taking up eight lessons concerning the beginning of the Christian life and the service of the church. The sessions are held in the pastor's study.

"TERRACE GARDEN" REVUE PROMISES MANY BEAUTIES
"Terrace Garden" will have its formal opening at the Spring Revue on the evening of April 9, 1923. The Garden is in the gymnasium of Illinois Woman's College and will be a delightful place. Last year's revue was interesting and lovely, but the affair this year will be still different and attractive.
The program of dances promises to be varied and entertaining. Beginning with Kamarina, a Russian solo dance, the Kate Greenaway dancers with the quaint charm of old England, the Greenish dancers in their interpretations of "Dawn" and "Twilight" on the Gypsy Revelers, who hold a gay festival, and Pierrot and Harlequin struggle for the love of beautiful Pierrette in a lovely moonlight phantasy—doesn't this attract?
Besides the dances, grace and beauty will be displayed in the swimming and diving in the pool below. Then what will Missy wear? And the cornet, please. And Jeff Gordon, the famous, the foremost creator of fashion in the world has created the new fashions in crepe and silks you will think. Correct dress combinations—on beautiful models.
There are to be four luncheon hours, 12:30 to 1:00; 1:30 to 2:00; 2:30 to 3:00; 3:30 to 4:00. Banty maids will serve you from dainty little trays on the dainty tables in this beautiful garden. From 7:30 to 9:00 delicious refreshments will be served.

APRIL SHOWERS STOP HARDING PLANS

(By The Associated Press)
AUGUSTA, Ga., April 4.—April showers prevented President Harding today from carrying out his plans to visit Aikens, S. C., just across the state line from Augusta but did not in the least interfere with the pursuit by the chief executive of his policy of rest and recreation.

Showers fell here early today until a few minutes before the presidential party was due to start for Aiken and after receipt of reports that the rain was continuing in the South Carolina city the trip was called off. It was said tonight to be probable that the president, possibly accompanied by Mrs. Harding would motor over to Aiken tomorrow to play golf and be the guest at luncheon of Cameron Forbes, former governor general of the Philippines.

The president got in a round of golf during the forenoon over the Augusta Country club course and in the afternoon rested at the hotel.

RABBI VICTIM OF BRUTAL ASSAULT

San Francisco, Cal., April 4.—Rabbi Alfred G. Lafee, 22, of the Bush Street Temple, lies in the Mount Zion hospital tonight near death from a crushed skull and other injuries, the result of a beating given him by a stranger dressed in a navy seaman's uniform while they were alone in a hotel room last night.

Rabbi Lafee was bleeding and senseless when found by a clerk of the hotel in the room early today and remained unconscious through the day except for a brief period when he was able to identify himself. Robbery is believed to have been the motive for the attack. Physicians early tonight were debating the advisability of operating on him.

JAILED

Mrs. Genevieve Paddleford, above, wife of a Hollywood (Cal.) oil millionaire, has been jailed on a charge of obtaining goods from merchants "by fraud and trickery." She denies the charge saying it was concocted by enemies.

ARMY SOCIETY WOMEN MAY BE WITNESSES

(By The Associated Press)
SAN ANTONIO, Texas, April 4.—Army society women at Fort Sam Houston were confronted today with the possibility of being called as witnesses in the military inquiry now being conducted into the controversy between Captain and Mrs. Edwin H. Randle and Colonel Arthur Conger as the outgrowth of which has been a $100,000 damage suit filed by the Randles against Colonel Conger. This rule of military law which places an inquiry of the nature now being conducted by Colonel Lincoln F. Kilbourne into the controversy on the same plane as a court of law, has created something of a stir in army circles. The report did not say that the women who had attended parties at the Randle home would be called as witnesses. These parties are said to have started the whole muddle ending in the filing of a suit against Colonel Conger on the ground of alleged defamation of character. But the possibility of any person, man or woman who had knowledge of material facts connected with the case being called appears strong.

At present no one is in position to say just when the hearing will come to an end.

NEW CULT HAS BEEN FOUNDED IN CHICAGO

Chicago, April 4.—A new cult founded upon "free living, smokes for women and strong liquor" was alleged by Edward Kinset to have been established by Carl Ullrich, with the latter as the self-constituted and unlicensed preacher. Kinset said his wife was numbered among the faithful.

Kinset had been arrested on complaint of Ullrich who said the man had threatened him when he made an effort to reconcile Kinset to the attendance of Mrs. Kinset at the service. He denied Kinset's charges.

The charges against Kinset were dismissed.

UNMASKED MEN WHIP L. L. BRIGHT

(By The Associated Press)
MACON, Ga., April 4.—A band of eight unmasked men, believed by the police to be members of the Ku Klux Klan, kidnaped Mrs. Frederick A. Pace of New York and Linwood L. Bright from the former's automobile at Second and Arch streets at 10 o'clock tonight, carried them to a lonely spot beyond Centulgee Park, a negro section, four miles from the city and there beat Bright into insensibility.

Mrs. Pace was not horsewhipped as at first reported but was forced to look on.

Bright was given 24 hours in which to leave the city under penalty of death.

Sheriff's deputies and motorcycle police combed the highways around Macon for three hours before Deputies Hardison and Raley of the sheriff's force came upon the couple trudging along a country road, walking toward Atlanta.

They had become lost on the lonely road and thought they were going toward Macon. The couple were brought to police headquarters where Bright and Mrs. Pace gave their version of the affair.

DURBIN

A large audience enjoyed the Easter pageant given at Durbin last Sunday eve. The parts were well taken and all were so splendidly given that it would be difficult to single out any particular part for praise.

The W. F. M. S. will meet with Mrs. Wilson Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. Barker as assistant hostess.

Mrs. William Davies is recovering from a week's illness.

Merle Moorman of Jacksonville spent Sunday with Viola Travers.

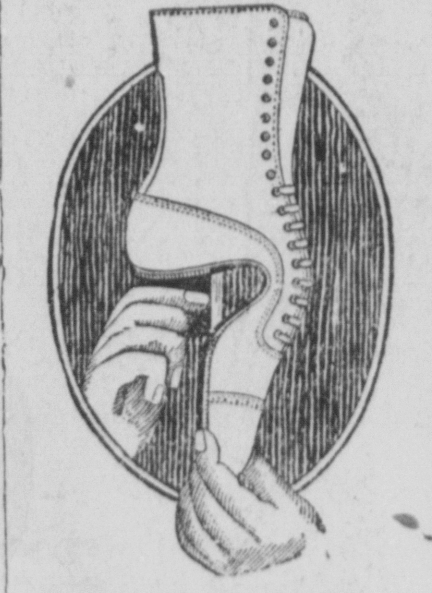

ALUMNAE OF L. W. C. PLAN MARKET AND BAZAAR

The affair is planned as a benefit for the endowment fund and the arrangements are in charge of the following committee: Miss Edna Osborne, chairman; Mrs. Mamie Kennedy Rataichak and Miss Hildreth Ashwood.

Ride on Springs Walk in Cantilevers

Primitive people rode in ox-carts—heavy, rigid, and without springs. Modern love of comfort and speed brought about the successful motor car, traveling on springs so resilient and balanced that we seem almost to ride through the air—the modern "Wings of Mercury."

To a lesser degree, our feet in daily life should act like the springs of the motor car. Nature composed the human foot of resilient, flexible arches to absorb the body shocks. Nothing rigid about your foot as Nature made it.

In the words of a doctor, "The foot is a cantilever spring."

The Flexible Arch

Does the arch of your shoe correspond with the arch of your foot in flexibility? Change to Cantilever Shoes. There is no concealed rigid metal embedded in the shank of Cantilever Shoes as in all ordinary shoes. They flex with your foot when you walk; permit the muscles to exercise and strengthen; allow free circulation; give room for all the toes. They give you complete comfort and trim appearance.

Wear the "Wings of Mercury." That means: Wear Cantilever Shoes. Sold in Jacksonville only by us.

LEGISLATURE SETTLES DOWN TO BUSINESS

(By The Associated Press)
SPRINGFIELD, Ill., April 4.—Returning to their labors a day later than usual, due to yesterday's election, members of the house of representatives settled down to the business of passing, advancing and introducing bills and holding committee meetings, with last week's animosities apparently forgotten for the time being.

Four house bills, minor in nature and two senate appropriations were passed with little or no opposition. The senate bills gave $12,000 for Chicago grain inspection and $14,200 to enforce the real estate brokers and salesmen licensing act.

A bill of Representative Rutshaw, Republican, Chicago, which was in order of passing was withdrawn during roll call for the purpose of amendment when its passage became doubtful. It would increase the relief to blind year.

Last week it had been recalled to second reading to reduce the relief from a proposed $300.

Minority leader Devine today suggested the bill be amended to safeguard "from defeat." He announced himself in favor of increased relief and declared it was unwise to practice economy on unfortunates.

After meeting opposition in the judiciary committee this afternoon a bill of Representative Mueller, Republican, Chicago, concerning corporations was sent to a senate committee and consideration of it postponed a week.

The measure which was before the assembly two years ago provides that no corporation shall acquire a stock of another corporation where the effect would be to divert the property funds or dividends from the operating company to the holding company.

Republican leader Little, Champaign, attacked it as the most dangerous legislation now in the house.

Belfast, April 4.—A band of Republicans today descended upon Dromahair, county Leitrim. After burning the court house they looted the stores, carrying away foodstuffs, boots and clothes.

DISASTROUS FIRE SWEEPS PARIS, ILLINOIS

(By The Associated Press)
DANVILLE, Ill., April 4.—Assisted by fire apparatus from Danville, Terre Haute and Christian, firemen of Paris, Ill., 38 miles south of here, late tonight were battling a stubborn and destructive fire which at midnight had destroyed several business blocks, and a number of residences, and other buildings just to the east of the public square.

The blaze originated in the store of the Whit Seal company, and is believed to have been incendiary as citizens reported seeing two men running from that store.

Later fire broke out in two or three other places, causing the citizens to hastily establish an armed patrol, and to call upon neighboring cities for assistance. At 10 p. m. the fire was believed to be under control, but broke out again at the union depot and in a barn a block distant and furnished a grave problem for the firemen.

Driven by a forty mile gale the fire swept the northeast corner of the public square, destroying in rapid succession the seed store, Athos-Gray Transfer and Storage company; Peoria Creamery company plant; Luther Black's Grocery; O'Hair Garage; a fifteen room apartment house and several residences and barns.

At midnight the fire was again reported under control. The union station was saved with slight damage.

The loss is estimated at about $200,000.

Dueeldorf, April 4.—A passenger train was narrowly saved from a wreck today when it was stopped before reaching a stretch of torn-up track near Bonn. The French arrested thirty striking railroad workers on the charges of sabotage.

Washington, April 4.—Director Hines of the Veterans Bureau today approved new rules of procedure in handling compensation cases designed to prevent political or other pressure from influencing unduly compensation allotments to former soldiers.

This corn is Yellow Dent, called Utility Type. The medium, smooth, well matured ears will give higher yields and better quality than the rough starchy corn which is later in maturity, lighter in weight, with inferior root development, more barren stalks, and has less vitality to resist unfavorable weather.

The corn will be distributed to farmers in Morgan County, Illinois,

FINAL SUMMONS FOR MRS. THERESA DE SILVA

Long Time Resident of City Dies as Result of Fracture of the Hip—Funeral Will Be Held Friday.

Mrs. Theresa DeSilva, wife of Joseph DeSilva, and resident in this city for over half a century, died at Our Savior's hospital Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

On March 29 Mrs. DeSilva fell at her home sustaining a fracture of the left hip. Owing to her advanced age the shock was so great that death came at the hour stated after several days of intense suffering.

Coroner Rose empaneled a jury which met at the Gilham funeral home, where the body had been removed, Wednesday evening. The jury heard the testimony of Benjamin DeSilva, son of the deceased, who appeared for his brother, Charles DeSilva, who was the first to reach his mother after the accident, and was too ill to appear in person.

Dr. F. A. Norris, who was called by Dr. P. C. Thompson, the family physician, gave as his opinion that death resulted from exhaustion. The jury returned a verdict in accordance with the facts as brought out in the testimony.

Decedent was in her 87th year at the time of death. She was born in the Island of Madeira and came to this country and to this city when quite young. She was united in marriage here to Joseph DeSilva. They recently observed their 66th wedding anniversary.

After their marriage Mr. and Mrs. DeSilva established their home at 724 West Lafayette avenue and there they have lived happily thru many years. They have been possessed of unusually good health and until the past winter, when both suffered a severe attack of influenza, have experienced but little sickness.

Mrs. DeSilva is survived by her husband and three sons, Charles DeSilva, who has made his home with his parents, Dr. Joseph DeSilva of Rock Island, and Benjamin F. DeSilva of Houston, Texas. Nine grandchildren and eight great grandchildren also survive. Three sons, John, Victor, and Louis, preceded their mother in death.

Early in life Mrs. DeSilva ant-

The little girl was born August 22, 1921. She is survived by her parents, and the following brothers and sisters: LeRoy, Ruth, Clara, Bert, Frank and Virginia Bond, all of whom reside at home.

The funeral will be held at 2:30 o'clock Friday afternoon from the funeral parlors of C. E. Williamson & Son, in charge of Rev. G. W. Randle. Burial will be in the east cemetery.

ed with Northminster church. She took an active interest in the work of that organization until advancing years came upon her. She loved her home and was never so happy as when ministering to her loved ones. However, she found time for other work and was widely known for her kindly spirit and helpfulness in time of need in the homes of her neighbors.

Funeral services will be held Friday from the Gilham Funeral Home, the hour to be announced later. Dr. Walter E. Spooner will be in charge of the services and burial will be in Diamond Grove cemetery.

Before Baby Comes—

EXPECTANT mothers do not undergo useless suffering any longer, and baby's birth can be made unusually easy.

Mrs. Wm. Flinn, 125 N. 7th St., Lawrence, Kas., says: "Mother's Friend is the best help in the world for an expectant mother. I am the mother of three children and have used 'Mother's Friend'."

"Mother's Friend" is externally applied about the abdomen, back and hips. It penetrates wonderfully, and in this way allows the muscles and ligaments to relax easily and readjust themselves to the changes during expectancy and at child-birth.

Use "Mother's Friend" as our mothers and grandmothers did. Don't wait until labor is painful and unbearable. Write to Bradfield Richardson Co., P.O. Box 46, Atlanta, Ga., for free booklet containing valuable information about expectant mothers should have.

"Mother's Friend" contains no opium or harmful drugs. There is no odor. A few drops on the abdomen and chest will soothe the baby and keep it comfortable. "Mother's Friend" is sold at drug stores everywhere.

RECALLS HISTORY OF LOCAL BUILDINGS

S. W. Nichols in a recent letter to the Journal gives various facts which he recalls in connection with the building which is being wrecked on the east side of the square. Mr. Nichols in his letter also refers to the recent death of John Slaughter, one of the prominent characters in Arizona in earlier days. The letter follows:

No. 119 East First St., Tucson, Arizona.

Dear Journal:

The wrecking of the building for the new Edison State bank building and the announcement of J. Herman's opening bring square and other buildings about the square. Mr. Nichols in his letter also refers to the recent death of John Slaughter, one of the prominent characters in Arizona in earlier days. The letter follows:

Samuel C. Brockman was for twelve years head clerk in the establishment. Immediately south was the hardware store of Mathers and Wadsworth. Wesley Mathers, father of Mrs. F. H. Rowe, and A. C. Wadsworth, father of Mrs. Richard Yates. I well remember in the '60's when Dick Folks, colored, was a member of Bethel A. M. E. Sunday school of which I was superintendent. One day he brought to Sunday school a little toddler, Nellie, daughter of his employer, and later mistress of the governor's mansion at Springfield.

The fine brick store on the south side was soon after constructed and into it the hardware store was moved and L. C. Eby conducted a grocery in the room with Dr. Grant for clerk. I think afterward H. M. Ennis had a grocery there. Not very long afterward the dry goods store was discontinued and a grocery was conducted there H. M. Ennis and John Melton were the firm and I drew up partnership papers for them but they soon dissolved and Mr. Melton took for a partner George W. VanZandt. The partnership continued for some time and then Mr. Melton went out and Mr. VanZandt carried on the business alone for some years with a good trade. I think after J. T. Mathers had the place with George Rutledge as clerk.

After Mr. Brockman had served Stevenson and Woods twelve years he felt it was time to go in for himself and I well remember Mr. Woods remarking that they had nothing to say and had given Mr. Brockman a good coat as a parting present.

A new firm was created and called Simons and Co. As I remember the partners were B. W. Simmons, John M. Ewing and S. C. Brockman. They carried a general line of merchandise and continued for some time but were not successful and closed out. They were in the Herman building.

All were fine men and stood well in the community. Mr. Brockman was employed by various merchants during the rest of his life. Mr. Simmons went to stock shipping and I think, Mr. Ewing turned his attention to building.

Mr. Herman is certainly to be congratulated on securing such quarters, desirable both in location and quality. I was greatly surprised by the change about to take place in the great east side furniture, carpet and stove establishment. Messrs. Hopper and Hamm succeeded a firm with a gilt edge reputation of long standing. I well remember coming to Jacksonville in the fall of 1864 and buying of W. B. Johnson an "Isabel" Todd stove, the first I had ever seen of the kind and it was a good one. The store was then located in the building now occupied by the W. T. Brown Co., and others. Later Mr. Johnson moved to south Main street and then after that took in Emerson Glover and opened on the east side where he was burned out and later built the fine brick structure which now stands there. The previous occupants were Grassy & Moore, grocers.

There recently died in this region one of the most distinguished characters of the state, John Slaughter. He was a sheriff when it meant something to wear that title. In the early days it wasn't so very unusual to see a man killed and the death of several created no especial stir under certain circumstances.

John Slaughter was elected sheriff and determined to do something toward restoring law and order. He had a wonderful presence and was hated, feared and respected by the lawless. At one time he had run down and captured a noted outlaw and was on his way to jail with him when his horse was almost ready to give up.

The prisoner told him to go on slowly and he would turn in at a certain place they were approaching and come on in the next day which he did. This is a pretty tough story but I have all reason to credit my informant.

Slaughter had some thrilling experiences and seemed to have to get about and for the sake of his kind benefactor made many good promises but finally civilized life pulled on him and one morning he was missing. He left word with Slaughter that he couldn't stand the pressure any longer and he was heard from no more for a good while.

A year or two after Slaughter was summoned to a point distant from his home to look after some outlaws who were making trouble in that region. He lost no time in starting out and it came woefully near being his last trip. Riding along he saw in the distance three horsemen evidently after him. He determined to avoid them if he could and put spurs to his mount but they gained on him perceptibly. Turning a sharp corner of the trail he left it and plunged into the forest hoping to elude his pursuers but they were hot on his track. Finally he shot at one of them and killed the man's horse instead and in turn his own was shot from under him. His shells were soon exhausted.

Matters now began to look serious. Determined to sell his life as dearly as possible he made rapidly to mind the scenes of nearly sixty years ago.

The building on the corner then was occupied by the dry goods store of Stevenson & Woods, B. F. Stevenson, brother of the late William Fleming, Elliott and Settimus Stevenson, and Abram C. Woods. The latter had been a merchant for some time in Franklin and desired to move to the county seat so formed a partnership with Mr. Stevenson. He was grandfather of our present honored mayor, E. E. Crafter.

By a concerted signal all three jumped from cover and levelled their rifles at the victim and bade him throw up his hands which was all he could do. Drawing near him they told him his activity had been very obnoxious and they had a charmed life. His very looks carried conviction with them and the lawless feared him. Once he went to take in a noted desperado and arrived at the hiding place of the latter when he had gone for a bucket of water, of course he could have shot him on the spot. Something the outlaw wouldn't have hesitated to do but it looked too much like cold blooded murder so when the man returned to the shack he was confronted by Slaughter who told him to make himself scarce which the fellow proceeded to do without delay.

At one time he did a good Samaritan deed which stood him well in hand later on. He was riding along one very dark night by a lonely spot in the road when he heard a feeble groan. Dismounting he discovered Tom Sloan, a noted bandit and bad man, suffering with a broken leg and several bad bruises. His saddle girth had broken and his sprained horse had run away throwing him violently to the ground and using him up generally.

With tremendous exertion Mr. Slaughter raised up the wounded man, placed him on his own horse and took him to the nearest place where he could rest for the night. No doctor was near so they managed to get the poor fellow to Tombstone where a surgeon was summoned and gave the necessary attention. A person less tough and hardy than Sloan would have died under the ordeal.

For weary weeks Slaughter and his family cared for the invalid and many times his kind host tried to dissuade him from returning to his wild life. Finally Sloan was able to stand on his feet and would do so on short notice. One of them stood between the other two when in a twinkling he drew his revolver covering them both and with a tremendous oath ordered them to throw up their hands on penalty of instant death.

It was all they could do and Slaughter discovered Tom Sloan whom he had saved some time before. Tom told him he was present when the whole thing was planned to capture the intrepid officer and he at once pretended to enter fully into the scheme and insisted on being one of the three to put him out of the way.

The other two were especially desperate, and Slaughter and Tom took them to Tombstone where they had their trial but the sheriff was cheated out of a hanging by a mob took the prisoners from jail and strung them to a limb of a convenient tree, a man whose two brothers they had killed furnishing the rope and helping in the hanging.

Sloan was a hero for some time about the parts for Slaughter stood high and was well respected and the fellow almost decided to give up his evil ways but the old time habits were too strong to be overcome.

There was something marvelous about Slaughter's presence. We all know how the Blessed Master taken to the brow of the hill at Nazareth to be casta headlong and turned and walked thru the throng away from the place his majestic presence overcoming the angry multitude thirsting for his life. It was something like this in a human way that Slaughter quelled his opponents and made them fear him and not molest him.

On one occasion he surprised several outlaws in their shack in the mountains walking right in on them as they sat at a table playing cards. He told them to make themselves scarce in that region and they obeyed. As I said before, this sounds strange but I have all reason to believe my information is correct.

He was a peaceable man and loved quiet rather than strife but when a job was to be done he did it fearlessly.

He was a great hunter and when there was no more need of his work putting down bandits he naturally preferred the gun to the plow and spent much time in the mountains after game and predatory animals. If any neighborhood was infested with wolves or mountain lions word was sent to Slaughter and his unerring rifle made short work of any varmint which came within range of his firearms.

He was a good, kind neighbor and many stories are told of his good works among the needy, though he was a man who never made any parade of his goodness. He lived to a good old age beloved and respected by all who knew him.

S. W. Nichols.

Market Report

By The Associated Press

MARKET PRICE DULL AND IRREGULAR

FINANCIAL. Total sales 984,000 shares. Twenty industrials averaged 191.40; net loss 20. High 1923 105.38; low 93.95. Twenty railroads averaged 86.30; net gain 13. High 1923 91.63; low 84.53. Total sales (par-value) $12,486,000.

NEW YORK, April 4.—Speculative interest apparently uncertain and undecided as to the next definite trend of the stock market manifested a hesitant attitude in today's dealings with a resultant dull and irregular movement of prices. Opening prices were generally firm. Some short selling took place later in the steel, equipment and Pan-American oil stocks but this was abandoned when it failed to bring out stock in other quarters.

The Bethlehem issues led the brief rally in the steel shares. A stock crossing 68 and closing 35 higher at 67 1/2 while the B stock crossed 67 and closed 14 higher at 66 1/2. United States Steel, Republic and Crucible all closed fractionally lower while Gulf States dropped more than a point. The weekly steel and iron trade reviews again called attention to the lessening demand resulting from the recent increase in prices.

Losses ranging from small fractions to nearly 2 points also were registered by such recent industrial favorites as Baldwin, American Locomotive, Studbaker, United States Rubber, American Smelting, Anaconda, Sinclair, Phillips Petroleum, the Pan-American Issues and California Petroleum.

Call money opened at 5 per cent, eased off to 4 1/2 within an hour and thence to four, where it closed. The final rate was the lowest since February 16. The abundance of call money resulted in a slight easing of the time rates with a moderate volume of business transacted at 5 1/2 per cent. Foreign exchanges were irregular but the fluctuations were small. Demand sterling dropped 1 of a cent to $4.66 9-16 and French francs dropped five points to 6.50 cents.

United States government issues with the exception of the tax-exempt 3 1/2 which were unchanged and the fourth Liberty 4 1/2 up 6-32 point, lost ground the drop ranging from 1-32 to 5-32 point.

BUTTER MARKET IN WEAKER CONDITION

CHICAGO, April 4.—Surplus stocks and very light demands placed today's butter market in a weaker position than has prevailed for some time. There was much pressure to sell and very little buying interest. What demand there was, was for cheap butter of which there was little around. As a result the range between scores was very narrow. At the close there were liberal offerings at the above prices and in some cases at concessions. The car market was also weak. A few sales made early in the day were made at the prices listed but at the close, offerings at these prices failed to interest buyers.

Fresh butter: 92 score 48 1/2; 91 score 48 1/4; 90 score 48; 89 score 48; 88 score 47 1/2; 87 score 47 1/4.

Centralized carlots: 90 score 48 1/2; 89 score 48 1/4.

WHEAT MARKET WAS UNSETTLED AT CLOSE

CHICAGO, April 4.—Altho during much of the time here today the wheat market reflected an advance in Liverpool quotations, belief that the domestic winter crop had received substantial benefit from rain and snow led afterward to a reaction. The close was unsettled at 1c but a decline to a like advance, with May $1.20 1/2 to $1.20 1/4 and July $1.17 1/2 to $1.17 1/4. Corn finished 1/2 to 3/4 up; oats unchanged to 1/2 higher.

At first the wheat bulls in the Chicago market were assisted both by the Liverpool advance and by indications that the winter wheat sections which most needed moisture had received the least. For a while a strength of values in the corn market did a good deal like-wise to stimulate buying of wheat and so too did estimates that Europe had taken 1,000,000 bushels of wheat mostly Canadian wheat, but including considerable durum.

Good export business in corn together with gossip that wet weather in Argentina was delaying the crop movement there had much to do with the corn market here. Besides corn receipts in Chicago were the smallest for some time past.

Oats lagged owing to liberal arrivals at primary points. Provisions were firm in response to the action of hog values.

FINE PROGRAM GIVEN AT WAVERLY CHURCH

Epworth League Presents Pageant at First M. E. Church
Other News Notes from Waverly.

Waverly, April 4.—The resurrection was the title of the Pageant the Epworth League put on at the First M. E. church of Waverly last Sunday evening. It was a very fine pageant, and well rendered. Mrs. Paul Allyn did the directing and the church choir furnished the music, there was a capacity congregation.

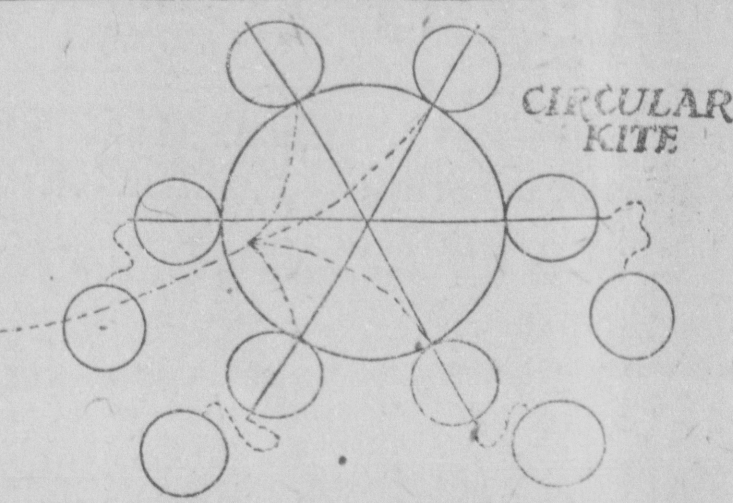

The boys and girls of this church have been organized into boster clubs, and meet in the basement of the church. They are taking a great interest in this part of the program the church is putting on.

Mrs. Helen Chalmers and two children of Wichita, Kan., are making a visit at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. Bennett.

Mr. and Mrs. Bert Roach and son, Marion, spent Sunday visiting relatives at Salisbury.

Clarence Rexroat is preparing to move to White Hall. The family will remain until school is out June 1.

For Boys and Girls

NEW KITES FOR WINDY DAYS.

How to Make a Circular Kite.

If you want to surprise all the boys in your neighborhood, build a circular kite. The day after your novelty has completed its trial flight, just see if the rest of the boys won't be making kites like it. The circular kite is one of the best types for high flying. It rises quickly in the air, and will stay up even on calm days.

Bamboo, cut from an ordinary fishing pole, is used for making the frame. In the illustration you will note that the frame is an exactly rounded circle. This may be hard to achieve with bamboo in its place use a barrel hoop, whittled down to 1/4 of an inch thick. Be sure, however, that the hoop is dry, otherwise it will warp and prevent your kite from flying.

Circular Frame any Size.
The circular frame can be any size, although it is best to make one about three feet in diameter. The three straight braces, projecting a foot outside the main hoop, are lashed in place with cord at the points shown in the illustration. These sticks can be any width or thickness, so long as they are strong. Of course the lighter they are, the better.

Six smaller circles are fastened at the joints of the cross pieces. These are twelve inches in diameter, and can be made of split bamboo bent around a coffee can. Molded in this manner, each will be the same size. It is a good plan, when you are this far with the construction, to make the additional four circles for the tails. They are the same size as the six other circles, only instead of being fastened tight to the kite, they are allowed to float in the air, tied to string.

Fasten String Carefully.

The dotted lines in the illustration show the corners to which are fastened the lead strings. Follow these instructions carefully, as to fasten the lead cord in the wrong place will mean that your kite will not fly.

The best covering for the kite is tissue paper. Paste it as tightly as possible over all the hoop, varnishing afterwards to make sure all the slack is taken up. Each hoop, after it is completed and varnished, should give off a boom like a drum, when tapped with the finger. Should the paper on one hoop bag, the kite will tip in that direction until a correction is made.

It is a good plan to paint the kite with brilliant colors, making each circle a different hue. Then you will have a beautiful, as well as unusual flier.

will probably be transferred to the second floor, and the social and club rooms will be downstairs.

The new home is under the control of an organization known as the House of the Future. This is a group of a few men who will manage the building, make the necessary changes and furnish the quarters to the local Council.

Plans are being considered for a real Knights of Columbus building at some future time. According to these plans, the Hairgrove residence would be moved to the rear of the lot, cut in two and made into two residences fronting on Morgan street. A two story block would then be erected on East State street frontage. It would have three store rooms on the lower floor, and spacious quarters for the Knights of Columbus above.

The Knights are planning a grand opening for their new home in the near future. A large class of prospective members is being solicited, and forty have already pledged to join the Council. This class will be initiated on the opening night and there will be other features of the program. The opening will be staged as soon as the home can be put in shape for the lodge work and social activities.

DON'T FUSS WITH MUSTARD PLASTERS!

Musterole Works Without the Blister—Easier, Quicker

There's no sense in mixing a mess of mustard, flour and water when you can easily relieve pain, soreness or stiffness with a little clean, white Musterole. Musterole is made of pure oil of mustard and other helpful ingredients, combined in the form of the present white ointment. It takes the place of mustard plasters, and will not blister. Musterole usually gives prompt relief from sore throat, tonsillitis, croup, stiff neck, asthma, neuralgia, headache, congestion, pleurisy, rheumatism, lumbago, pains and aches of the back, cramps, sprains, sore muscles, bruises, chilblains, frosted feet, colds of the chest (it may prevent pneumonia), etc. and 65c, jars and tubes.
